

Call for Academic Posters

(Deadline — April 6th, 2018)

Students & Professors are invited to present posters at ExcipientFest 2018

[Announcement] ExcipientFest Americas and the Drug Development and Industrial Pharmacy Journal (DDIP) are joining forces to expand excipient research presence on peer-reviewed publications. When submitting your poster(s) mark the checkmark to authorize us to share your abstract(s) with DDIP to be evaluated for publication.

ExcipientFest Americas is the leading international forum devoted to scientific, regulatory and sourcing/supply developments in Excipient technology. This two-day conference & expo is a true educational bridge between Excipient Manufacturers and the demanding Pharmaceutical Industry.

ExcipientFest attracts Pharmaceutical Scientists from around the world to a unique two-day forum, featuring in-depth technical talks on Excipient technology, new drug applications and regulatory issues from industry's top-pharmaceutical experts.

Posters should focus on topics related to Excipient Technology or Drug Application

Over 400 key contacts from the Pharmaceutical Industry around the world are expected to attend ExcipientFest. Well-known excipient manufacturers, scientists, technical services, quality control, production and purchasing from major pharmaceutical companies will be present along with a large representation from the academic community.
